

Vacation Plan

Teacher Name: Teq iPad Class

Student Name: _____

CATEGORY	4	3	2	1
Travel Arrangements- The student has researched the best travel options for their dream destination.	The student chose the most sensible travel arrangements for their trip and provided an explanation for their selection.	The student chose the best option for travel; however, they did not provide explanation for their selection.	The student provided an explanation; however, based on the explanation the student did select the best travel arrangement.	The student did not provide an explanation and did not select the best travel arrangements.
Map- The students will provide a map of their dream destination. The students will also include directions to the destination.	The student provided a detailed map of the destination and provided directions for each item on the itinerary.	The student provided a detailed map of the destination and included directions for most of the items on the itinerary.	The student did not provide a detailed map of the destination or did not include directions to the items on the itinerary.	The student did not provide a detailed map of the destination and did not provide directions to any of the items on the itinerary.
Activities/Entertainment- The student will list and describe at least 5 activities he/she will schedule.	The students provided at least 5 activities with their description and provided the cost of each activity.	The students provided a list, descriptions, and cost, but did not meet the requirement of at least 5 activities.	The student provided a list of activities and cost, but did not provide a description for the activities.	The student did not list any activities or descriptions and did not provide a cost for the activities on the itinerary.
Itinerary- The student will include departure and arrival times for all activities for the trip.	The student provided departure and arrival times for all activities in a detailed, organized manner.	The student provided departure and arrival times for most activities in a detailed, organized manner.	The student provided departure and arrival for some of the activities on the trip.	The student did not provide departure and arrival times for any of the activities of the trip.