Clerk's Conferences

The 2018-2019
Summer Series focused on compassion fatigue and school & personal safety.

Legislative Committee

It took the whole team to stay on top of all the legislative issues, plan our responses and advocate, in what would prove to be a challenging year for Public Education.

Legislative Sub-committee- Federal Paper up-date

The Legislative Breakfast

- Driving our message home as a group.....

The Legislative Breakfast

Priorities for discussion:

- Permanent Tax Levy Cap Proposal & possible flexibilities
- Foundation Aid/ Equity Formula
- Building By Building Reporting
- Combining & Capping Expense Based Aids
- Transportation Proposals & Bus Driver shortages

Telling our individual and collective stories to legislators and their aids.....

Albany in the Winter~

To the extent that we are all educated and informed , we will be more equipped to deal with the gut issues that tend to divide us.

Carolyn Kennedy

Advocating in the spring

with our legislators locally...

Thanking them for raising the DS Salary Cap, allowing TRS reserves to be established, and not combining and capping expense based aids.

Still looking for movement on tax cap flexibility, foundation aid needs, and mandate relief

MCEC Coalition

MCEC

Monroe County Education Coalition

Working Together To Support Public Education

20+

1995-2019

Members generated Bulletins this year on

- “The Teaching Profession- At a Critical Crossroad” in October and
- “Implications of a Permanent Tax Levy Cap on Public Education” in March to better inform their respective constituents.

MCEC is a partnership of the major stakeholders in public education in Monroe County that has worked for over 20 years to support our excellent public schools.

Prospective Board Members Seminar

And the process
starts again-

New Affiliate Association

Established in 2017

Affiliate members met at the MAG in January for an update on the Governor's Budget and enjoyed a Detour at the Museum.

Advocacy for public education continues..... In new forms

Networking and renewing old friendships

And this is why we do what we do-

Working to meet their needs and interests

The children always come first!

Thank you for all your efforts and participation this year!
