

K-12 Summary of Resources

Resources designed for Grades 6 to 12

English Language Arts

Access World News/Find a Topic: Global primary source content for all subject areas. Bring real world events to classroom learning. Full-text searching returns current and archived articles supporting research and critical thinking.

Black Authors 1556-1922: Contains 550+ fully catalogued and searchable works by black authors from the Americas, Europe and Africa. Compiled by the curators of the Afro-Americana Imprints collection.

Popular Periodicals Premier: A collection of some of the most widely read magazines published. Covers topics relevant to the curriculum like world news, people, health, culture, education, business, science, sports and more.

Social Studies

Access World News/Find a Topic: Global primary source content for all subject areas. Bring real world events to classroom learning. Full-text searching returns current and archived articles supporting research and critical thinking.

America's Historical Newspapers: Primary source historical U.S. papers dated 1690 to 2000. Timeline/topic-based interface. Complete editions of the paper, including illustrations, advertisements, cartoons and more.

Foreign Broadcast Information Service 1941-1996: The U.S.'s principal historical record of political open source intelligence. Foreign perspectives are presented on U.S. and world issues past and present from actual transcripts.

The Rand Daily Mail (1902-1985): Published daily in Johannesburg, this title pioneered popular journalism in South Africa. It is renowned for being the first newspaper to openly oppose apartheid and contribute to its downfall.

Early American Imprints, Series I: Evans 1639-1800: Imperative for researching every aspect of 17th and 18th century America. The collection contains almost every book, pamphlet and broadside published in America during this period.

Early American Imprints, Series II: Shaw-Shoemaker 1801-1819: Provides a comprehensive set of American books, pamphlets and broadsides published in the early part of the 19th century.

African American Newspapers: Provides insight into the culture and contributions of African Americans from 1827-1998. Primary sources from 35 states. Includes Freedom's Journal (NY) and North Star—published by Frederick Douglass.

Black Authors 1556-1922: Contains 550+ fully catalogued and searchable works by black authors from the Americas, Europe and Africa. Compiled by the curators of the Afro-Americana Imprints collection.

Hispanic American Newspapers 1808-1980: Represents the single largest compilation of Hispanic newspapers printed in Spanish and English in the U.S.

African Newspapers 1800-1922: Over 60 African newspapers, featuring English and foreign-language titles. Offers unparalleled coverage of the issues and events that shaped the continent and its peoples between 1800 and 1922.

Latin American Newspapers 1805-1922: Covers the people, issues and events that shaped the region. Chronicles the evolution of Latin America through eyewitness reporting, editorials, legislative information, letters and more.

South Asian Newspapers: English, Gujarat, and Bengali-language papers published in the regions of Pakistan and Ceylon, now Sri Lanka. Covers the people, issues and events that shaped the Indian Subcontinent from 1864 to 1922.

American Broad­sides and Ephemera: A full-color edition of 15,000 broadsides printed between 1820 and 1900 and 15,000 pieces of ephemera printed between 1749 and 1900. A uniquely powerful resource for visual teaching and learning.

American Civil War Collection 1860-1922: Over 13,500 works addressing all facets of the War. Coverage extends from the Civil War and into the postwar period, when modern interpretations of the conflict began to take shape.

American Race Relations: Global Perspectives 1941-1996: Covers foreign perspectives of American racial issues in the mid-20th century. A unique collection of primary source documents on racial justice from around the world.

Middle East and North Africa: Global Perspectives 1958-1994: Offers firsthand reporting and deep analysis on important issues and historic events from Morocco to Egypt to Afghanistan with content not available anywhere else.

Apartheid: Global Perspectives 1946-1996: A collection of thousands of translated news broadcasts and publications written by people who experienced apartheid and by those around the world who watched, reacted to and analyzed it.

The Cold War: Global Perspectives on East-West Tensions 1945-1991: The Cold War was a force in global politics from the end of WWII to 1990. These global primary source documents shed light on this crucial time in world history.

Immigrations, Migrations and Refugees: Global Perspectives 1941-1996: An archive of global sources, covers post-World War II Jewish resettlement, South African apartheid, Latin American migrations to the United States and more.

Popular Periodicals Premier: A collection of some of the most widely read magazines published. Covers topics relevant to the curriculum like world news, people, health, culture, education, business, science, sports and more.

Science

ScienceSource: Contains digests based on articles from scientific journals and magazines. The collection clarifies complex concepts and provides important facts, ideas, results and conclusions from the original article.

Access World News/Find a Topic: Global primary source content for all subject areas. Bring real world events to classroom learning. Full-text searching returns current and archived articles supporting research and critical thinking.

All Subject Areas

Popular Periodicals Premier: A collection of some of the most widely read magazines published. Covers topics relevant to the curriculum like world news, people, health, culture, education, business, science, sports and more.

Access World News/Find a Topic: Global primary source content for all subject areas. Bring real world events to classroom learning. Full-text searching returns current and archived articles supporting research and critical thinking.

Resources designed for Grades K to 6 All Subject Area's

NewsBank KidsPage: Offers web-based access to articles from relevant, age-specific publications, many of which include photographs and images. Supports all subject areas.