_____ is a student at Monroe #1 BOCES Creekside School. His current educational program includes a formal Behavior Intervention Plan (BIP) that contains interventions and individualized procedures for managing the student's display of negative target behaviors. Based on data collected by the educational team as well as observations made by multiple staff members who work with _____, it has been determined that he no longer requires this level of behavioral support. The current Tier 1 and Tier 2 support provided by the Creekside School and his 12:1:4 classroom setting are sufficient to promote and teach appropriate behaviors. It is the recommendation of the educational team at Creekside School that the Behavior Intervention Plan for _____ be discontinued and removed from the IEP.
