B. Flexible Spending Accounts (FSAs)

1. Types of FSAs

General Medical FSA

- (a) Maximum amount you can set aside per Plan Year for reimbursement of eligible medical expenses as defined by IRC Section 213(d) except for insurance premiums: $2,750.
- (b) If expenses are eligible under both a Medical FSA and a Health Reimbursement Account (HRA) sponsored by your Employer, your Medical FSA funds will be used first until they are exhausted.
- (c) For active participants:
 - Eligible services must be provided:
 - after your effective date in the Plan and
 - during the Plan Year.
- (d) If you become ineligible (including termination of employment) during the Plan Year:
 - Eligible services must be provided:
 - after your effective date in the Plan,
 - during the Plan Year and
 - prior to the date on which you become ineligible.
 - The Beniversal Card may no longer be used to access General Medical FSA funds. You may submit a claim for reimbursement of eligible expenses.

Limited Medical FSA

- (a) Maximum amount you can set aside per Plan Year for reimbursement of eligible vision care and dental care expenses as defined by IRC Section 213(d): $2,750.
- (b) If expenses are eligible under both a Limited Medical FSA and a Limited Health Reimbursement Account (HRA) sponsored by your Employer, your Limited Medical FSA funds will be used first until they are exhausted.
- (c) For active participants:

- Eligible services must be provided:
 - after your effective date in the Plan and
 - during the Plan Year.
- (c) If you become ineligible (including termination of employment) during the Plan Year:
 - Eligible services must be provided:
 - after your effective date in the Plan,
 - during the Plan Year and
 - prior to the date on which you become ineligible.
 - The Beniversal Card may no longer be used to access Limited Medical FSA funds. You may submit a claim for reimbursement of eligible expenses.

Dependent Care FSA

- (a) Maximum amount you can set aside per calendar year for reimbursement of eligible dependent care services, as defined by IRC Section 21(b), is limited to the smallest of the following amounts:
 - $5,000 if single or if married and filing jointly; $2,500 if married and filing separately.
 - The earned income of the participant.
 - The earned income of the participant's spouse.
- (b) For active participants:
 - Eligible services must be provided:
 - after your effective date in the Plan and
 - during the Plan Year.
- (c) If you become ineligible (including termination of employment) during the Plan Year:
 - Eligible services must be provided:
 - after your effective date in the Plan and
 - during the Plan Year in which you become ineligible.

2. Claims for FSAs

Claim submission time frames

- (a) Claims must be received by Benefit Resource, Inc. before the end of the 60 day run-out after the Plan Year ends.
- (b) Claims denied during the run-out may be resubmitted, but must be received by Benefit Resource within 21 days after the run-out ends.
- (c) Eligible participants are allowed to rollover up to $500 of unused General or Limited Medical FSA funds to the next Plan Year after the end of the time frame in (b) is completed for the current Plan Year. The minimum amount that can rollover must be greater than $10.
- (d) Any funds remaining in your General, Limited Medical or Dependent Care FSA after this will be forfeited.

Claim reimbursements

- (a) Complete your claim following all instructions.
- (b) Claims received with proper documentation will be processed within 5 business days.
- (c) Claim reimbursements are processed daily.
- (d) There is a minimum reimbursement amount of $15 (except during the run-out after the end of the Plan Year).
- (e) A claim should never be submitted for an expense that has been paid for with a Beniversal Card or reimbursed from any other source.

3. Beniversal Card for General or Limited Medical FSA

- (a) The Beniversal Card allows you to access General or Limited Medical FSA funds to pay for eligible medical services at qualified merchants.
- (b) If you have a Limited Medical FSA and HSA, the Limited Medical FSA funds will be used first until exhausted.
- (c) The card may only be used to pay for eligible medical services after they have been provided. The IRS allows one exception: eligibility of orthodontia expenses can be based on either date of payment, date of service or payment due date on coupons/statements.
- (d) Payment of a current Plan Year medical service with the card must be completed before the Plan Year ends.
- (e) Once a new Plan Year begins, only General or Limited Medical FSA funds associated with the new Plan Year will be available on the card.
- (f) You are advised to save all documentation related to medical expenses paid with your card, as IRS regulations require all transactions to be verified for eligibility.
- (g) If a card transaction cannot be automatically verified, you will be contacted to submit documentation for that transaction.
- (h) Medical expenses paid with the card should never be submitted for claim reimbursement.

C. Health Savings Account (HSA)

1. General HSA Information

- (a) HSA funds should only be used for eligible medical expenses as defined by IRC Section 213(d).
- (b) Information regarding maximum amounts that can be set aside in an HSA per calendar year (including any Employer contributions) can be found at the Benefit Resource website under the FAQ HSA section.
- (c) For active participants:
 - Eligible services must be provided on or after the date the HSA is established.
 - Any funds remaining in your HSA will carry over from year to year and will never be forfeited.
- (d) If you become ineligible (excluding termination of employment) during the Plan Year:

*Please review your Summary Plan Description for details of IRS regulations.

The Employer maintains a Plan Document; if anything in this document conflicts with the Plan Document, then the Plan Document controls.
